Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Luke brings us to our 49th book of the Bible. Luke depends for much of his information on Mark's gospel account. For other sections, he and Matthew draw from a different source known simply as "Q" (for the German Quelle meaning "source"); and for yet other sections, Luke draws on a source wholly his own: Luke, for example, is the only gospel account to contain the stories of the Prodigal Son, the Good Samaritan, Zaccheus, the Good Thief, and the two disciples on the Road to Emmaus. Luke was reportedly a physician, so healing and forgiveness are strong components in his account. Luke is also very balanced in his story-telling: whenever he tells a faith story involving a man, he also tells one of a woman. The Holy Spirit is also important in his writing, and we see this both in his gospel account and in The Acts of the Apostles which is the 2nd part of his Biblical offerings. Like Matthew, Luke's account begins with an Infancy Narrative, but unlike Matthew's, Luke's is less interested in showing the events of Jesus' early life as fulfilling Old Testament prophecies than he is in showing that his life story was no threat to the Roman Empire into which he was born. We also see much more about Mary (Annunciation, Visitation, Presentation, Finding of Jesus in the Temple) than we do of Joseph through whose Jewish lineage Matthew traced Jesus' roots. Interesting note: In Luke, John the Baptist is arrested before Jesus is baptized; Luke's account does not say who baptized Jesus (it's surprising what you find when you read slowly!). At the end of Luke's account, Jesus ascends to heaven—which is where Luke's Part 2 (Acts) begins. When you finish this book, you will have read 49 (67.1%—that's over 2/3 of the Bible, and the last 24 books average only 8 chapters each: 1 for each day [and a bonus one for each Sunday] for the rest of the year) of the 73 books of the Bible, yet 1,142 (85.6%) of the 1,334 chapters of the Bible.

This is the first weekend in our new program-and-fiscal year. Thank you very much for honoring all Time-Talent-Treasure commitments. It is only with such regular stewardship that the pastoral needs of all the parish can be dependably met and the facilities for our ministries can be responsibly cared for. In that regard, our Facilities Committee meets tomorrow (Monday) evening to continue monitoring and planning all work to be done in the summer with the funds generated in our capital campaign (you'll be seeing roofing, paving, and plumbing trucks on the grounds over the next few months). Tuesday is the Full "Buck" Moon at 5:21 A.M. Wednesday, our neighbor ecumenical ministers will gather for conversation. Thursday is the relatively new feast of St. August Zhao Rong & Companions. Friday, our new Pastoral Council Executive Committee meets. Saturday, Dickens' A Tale of Two Cities is 150 years old. Next Sunday, our Anointing Service is at 2:00 P.M. at St. Ambrose. God's peace to all!

—Father Schrader

Those who knit and receive shawls are loved and blessed" (Victoria Cole-Gato and Janet Bristow). A group of women from our parish meets twice a month to knit and crochet prayer shawls. These shawls are given to anyone who needs a reminder of how much they are loved and cared for. Do you know someone who is ill, recovering from a loss or celebrating a significant anniversary? We have prayer shawls that you can give them. Call Pat Lawlor at 288-1620 or email her at plawlor@dor.org to arrange to pick up a shawl.

Our next Shawl Ministry meeting is this Tues., July 7, at 7:00 pm in the Conference Room in the Parish Office. ALL ARE WELCOME. Come and join us or if you need more information, call Pat.

Do you find yourself afraid to take the next steps regarding school, work, or possibly a vocation (life commitment)? God promises to lead us to the path meant for us and then to give us the Holy Spirit for the strength and wisdom to follow that path. Trust in our loving God who says, "My grace is sufficient for you."

SOCIAL MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY
Saturday Workday – 08/1/09

To provide an opportunity for volunteers who can't work during the week, Saturday August 1, 2009, will be a Habitat workday for Peace of Christ parishioners and friends. Please contact Pat Callahan (482-7352) or Pete Chesterton (482-1955) for more information.

Prison Ministry Opportunities

During the weekend of September 11-13, 2009 some of the residents at the Wende Correctional Facility in Alden, NY will be participating in a retreat experience called a REC. REC stands for Residents Encounter Christ. Spiritual talks centered around a common theme are given by team members. The retreat is based on "Dying to self" in order to "Rise to a new life in Christ". Upon completion of the weekend, all participants are sent to "Go forth to Live the Good News." The weekend includes a talk on Penance and Forgiveness and the opportunity for the men to receive the sacrament of Reconciliation. Mass is also celebrated at least one of the days.

Parishioners from Peace of Christ Parish are invited to support and encourage the success of this prison ministry opportunity. There are four ways you can help:

- 1) You may offer daily Prayer and/or Sacrifice for an inmate who participates in the weekend and be willing to sign your first name to a letter which shares your support, prayers and best wishes with the resident.
- 2) By following a simple pattern, you may sew some stoles. One stole will be given to each inmate who participates in the REC. It serves as a symbol of their desire to live a life of Christ and to "Go forth and live the Good News." Please contact Joyce McAndrew for the pattern, instructions and for making stoles. All stoles used for this REC will need to be completed and delivered to our parish office by September 8, 2009.
- 3) You may choose to attend part of the REC weekend. On Saturday evening September 12, 2009 people from "the outside" are encouraged to attend the "Hoot". During the "Hoot", visitors participate in song, sit at tables with the inmates and listen to their personal stories as to how the REC weekend has affected each of them.
- 4) You may make a monetary donation in support of our Prison Ministry program. Just place an envelope addressed to "Peace of Christ Prison Ministry" in the collection basket. Checks should be made payable to Peace of Christ Parish.

If you would like more information about how you can support Prison Ministry, please contact Eric Oswald by phone 654-5631 or email ozzmann@frontiernet.net OR Joyce McAndrew by phone 288-8551 or email joyce@frontiernet.net.

THANK YOU for your interest and support of our Prison Ministry Program.
