Sacramental Preparation (please choose any you would like to take part in):

Please note: There is an additional $25 fee per sacramental preparation program (below). These fees cover the costs of the preparation materials your child keeps. They are in addition to our religious education fees.

- Confirmation Preparation (Offered in Grade 8)
- Reconciliation Preparation (Offered in the fall 2018, Grade 2)
Diocesan policy mandates that children must first receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation before receiving the Sacrament of Holy Communion.
- Eucharist Preparation (Offered in the spring, 2019 Grade 2)

According to Diocesan guidelines, a child must have completed a year of Religious Education, either in a parish program, or a Catholic school, and be currently enrolled in a program to prepare to receive a sacrament. A total of 30 hours/year of catechesis is required for all children and adolescents in grades K-12.
